

Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre Statement – Novel Coronavirus (COVID-9)

PCEC has been closely monitoring updates and implemented all current measures, as advised by the Australian Government.

Our best defence in preventing the spread of the virus is encouraging our clients and their suppliers, in practising good hand hygiene.

As this situation evolves, we will continue to evaluate and make operational changes as needed.

Thank you for your understanding and collaboration.

Please contact your respective venue contacts for any further inquiries.
